For too long, you've had to choose between the look you love and the comfort you crave. Traditional recliners offer incredible relaxation, but they're bulky, require precious space for wall clearance, and often clash with your carefully curated style. With a sleek mechanism that requires 0" of wall clearance, Revella pieces look identical to our most popular stationary collections. Whether your style is modern, traditional, or transitional, there's a Revella piece that fits seamlessly into your space. Now you can finally have it all: the refined style of stationary furniture with the luxurious comfort of a recliner.
